2-3 July, 2009, London, United Kingdom

Call For Papers

The Committee of the Third International Graduate Legal Research Conference (IGLRC) invites graduate students undertaking legal research to propose abstracts of papers for consideration for the Conference.

The Conference will take place over two days at King's College London in the heart of London's legal quarter. The aim of the Conference is to give graduate students in law from across Europe and the world the opportunity to present papers reflecting excellence in legal research. It will provide a forum for debate, the exchange of ideas, and the furtherance of knowledge.

The topics to be covered by the Conference include, but are not limited to (submissions in other areas of law are also encouraged):

Constitutional & Administrative Law of the EU
Commercial & Contract Law
Criminology & Criminal Justice
Competition Law
Legal Theory
Human Rights in the 21st Century
WTO & International Trade Law

The closing date for receipt of abstracts is Friday, 6 March 2009. Successful applicants will be informed by Friday, 3 April 2009. The authors of abstracts selected for presentation will be expected to submit completed papers (with a maximum length of 6,000 words) by Friday, 15 May 2009. The Committee will endeavour to secure publication of the best papers presented at the Conference.

Abstracts should be 400 words in length and accompanied by the applicant's brief CV. Submissions and queries should be sent to: submissions@iglr.com. Electronic submissions are preferred. However, a hard copy may be sent to:
